

Nick Gauntlett Eventers Training Camp

NG

NICK GAUNTLETT
INTERNATIONAL EVENT RIDER

30th and 31st October 2010

Nick Gauntlett is offering the opportunity for you and your horse to join the team at Chescombe Farm for a 2 day intensive training course. At Chescombe Farm you will have the opportunity to meet Nick's horses, learn how a professional eventing yard is run and how Nick produces his horses from BE 100 to 4* level.

The course includes four group lessons (Dressage, SJ, Gridwork and simulated XC) with a maximum of 4 riders of similar ability per group. Nick will provide ridden demonstrations and his team will run teaching sessions on feeding and event preparation.

Course Outline

DAY 1
Am	Yard Tour Dressage Lessons Dressage Demo
Pm	Gridwork Lessons Jumping Demo Teching session 1

DAY 2
Am	Teaching session 2 SJ lesson and course
Pm	Simulated XC De-brief with Nick
	Depart for home

This two day package costs just £145 per person and is inclusive of stable and bedding for up to 2 nights and a buffet lunch on both days (and continental breakfast if staying on site). You would be welcome to sleep in your own lorry on site or we can provide you with information on or book a local guest house for you. For those keen to sample the local cuisine a group meal will be booked for the Saturday night- another excellent opportunity to have a chat with Nick.

Nick is also offering a limited number of people the option to add either an interval training session on our 5 furlong all weather gallops or a private lesson with Nick (at a concessionary rate) on the 29th .

Any questions, please email: admin@gauntlett.me.uk or call Frankie on 07770 373500.

To book, please complete the booking form and return with payment. Cheques should be made payable to "N. Gauntlett" and rider name written on reverse.

These are group sessions and as such will include people with varying abilities. You should however ensure that you are able and confident to perform all the training as listed above safely.
